SPONTANEOUS KNIFE Instructor Course

COURSE Date: April 24 - 26, 2019 TIME: 8:00am to 4:30 pm

This 24-hour course is designed to certify officers as Spontaneous Knife Instructors. The PPCT Spontaneous Knife Defense System is designed to meet the needs of students who are confronted by a spontaneous knife assault and unable to retrieve a weapon. It is based upon a realistic, yet highly aggressive, check-and-stun philosophy that employs gross motor skills that are compatible with the affects of survival stress. It reviews the fundamentals of basic knife systems; reviews the common grips, types of strokes, and lines of attack; and reviews defense strategies for both stalking assaults and spontaneous assaults inside the reactionary gap.

This instructor seminar will teach each participant:

- A system designed upon simple control, disengagement, and disarming techniques.
- Scientifically researched skills based upon tactical, legal and medical acceptability.
- Edged weapon avoidance.
- Use of Force Human Factors research.
- Legal authorities and use of force resistance control continuum.
- Experiential learning through adult education.
- Presentation and instructional techniques.
- Preparation and lesson planning
- And report writing.

Student Requirements: Functional clothing; Attendees should be free from physical/medical conditions

- There will be a one hour lunch break.
- Attendees are responsible for their own lunch.
