One or more signatures are missing from your FAFSA. Your financial aid eligibility was not calculated due to the missing signature(s). In order to continue processing of your financial aid application you (and your parent, if parent information is given on the FAFSA) must read, sign and submit this form.

1

READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION

If you are the student, by signing this application you certify that you:

- 1) will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education,
- 2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
- 3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
- 4) will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan, and
- 5) will not receive a Federal Pell Grant for more than one school for the same period of time.

If you are the parent or the student, by signing this application you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed FAFSA. This information may include your U.S. or state income tax forms.

Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies.

If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
