Humanities 2012-2013 CATALOG

If you can imagine yourself immersed in music, art, culture and history, then you can imagine yourself in one of our Humanities courses. They range from studies of classic Western masterpieces in a variety of forms (painting, sculpture, symphony and architecture) to studies of popular culture, mass media and the human condition. In addition, we offer field study courses that include trips to England, France, Italy and Spain for a firsthand encounter with the arts and culture of these countries. Don't forget your camera!

WHY CHOOSE A COURSE IN HUMANITIES?

Because...

- You want to experience the world beyond Wayne County.
- You know that humanities are part of a well-rounded education.
- You want a better understanding of our artistic past, present and future.
- You want credits that may count toward your associate degree.
- You want to earn credits that may transfer toward a four-year degree.

Humanities courses are identified by the prefix HUM.
