This art history course examines the development of western art from the early Renaissance through contemporary art with emphasis on various societies, artists, and art forms including painting, sculpture and architecture.

Learn how to:
- Analyze the ways in which the visual arts function within the context of society.
- Examine the relationship of various art forms to each other.
- Explore the most important developments and styles of Western Art from the early Renaissance to the present.
- Explain the basic elements of painting, sculpture, and other art forms.
- Analyze various materials, formal techniques and conceptual strategies employed by artists in the making of their work.
- Apply stylistic and analytical terminology to a specific work of art.
- Explore how various works of art represent the artistic style or period in which they were created.
- Explore how and why artists created their work.
- Explore the ever-changing dynamic between content and style.
- Analyze works of art from an historical context.

For more information, contact:
Kevin Ewing
(734) 462-4580 ext. 8139
kewing@schoolcraft.edu