Submission Deadline: November 11, 2019

Rules:

- The contestant must be enrolled at Schoolcraft College during the Winter 2019 and/or Fall 2019 semester.
- The writing or artwork must deal with a topic of international or cross-cultural interest and be suitable for publication in International Agenda, the semi-annual magazine of the Schoolcraft College International Institute.
- The entry must be the original work of the contestant, must not have been previously published, and must not have previously won a prize in this contest.
- The contestant may enter no more than one work in each of the two categories: writing (such as essay, research paper, persuasive argument, creative writing, or poetry) and artwork (such as drawing, painting, computer graphics, a photograph, a portfolio of related photographs, or photography of an original work of sculpture). Those entering artwork are strongly encouraged to send some accompanying verbiage, such as a brief statement about the work or, in the case of photography, a caption for each photo.
- All submissions (writing and artwork) should be converted to digital form. Contact the Editor (see address below) with any questions or problems.
- Submissions will be judged by a panel of faculty and staff volunteers based on three criteria: content, originality, and appeal (style/aesthetics).
- The Financial Aid Office will deposit the winner’s prize money into their student account as a scholarship award to defray expenses for coursework in a subsequent term. If the winner does not plan to enroll in a subsequent term at Schoolcraft, then they can receive the amount as a refund from their account.
- International Agenda reserves the right to not award a prize if no submitted work is judged suitable for that prize.

Steps:

- Procure an entry form from the Editor (see below) or from:
  http://www.schoolcraft.edu/scii/international-agenda.
- Fill out and sign a printed copy of the entry form, and send it to the Editor. The form provides basic identifying information about you, affirms that the work is your own, and gives permission for it to be used in the magazine.
- Submit a digital version of your writing or artwork as an e-mail attachment to the Editor at the address below.
- Your entry form and your digitized work must be received by the deadline date given above.
