

Name
Address Street, City, State, Zip
Phone/Email Address
PIC # (mandatory)
Teacher Certificate Number or Last 4 digits of Social Security Number
Lessons
Introduction - The Science of Early Literacy Understand what the science of early literacy encompasses and how it applies to Pre-K / Explore the foundational role of oral language in emergent literacy / Recognize common myths about the science of reading and oral language / Celebrate the critical importance of Pre-K educators.		2 hrs, 15 min
Module 1 - Let's Talk About It! Define oral language and its domains / Emphasize the role and significance of oral language in early childhood / Explain what it means to be a competent communicator / Take away key components in supporting English Learners.		1 hr, 35 min
Module 2 - CEO of Language (YOU!) Identify key components of a language-rich environment / Describe the necessary skills needed to be an effective communicator / Take away components of planning an effective interactive read-aloud / Connect components of high-quality conversations throughout the school day.		2 hrs, 15 min
Module 3 - The Magic of a Read-Aloud Apply evidence-based components of planning a read-aloud in context / Learn specific routines to support phonological awareness and vocabulary / Reflect on the importance of inclusive language instruction within a read-aloud lesson / Take away tools and strategies that best support our understanding of student learning.		2 hrs, 25 min
Module 4 - Connecting Speech to Print Review specific routines to support phonology development and phonemic awareness / Identify ways to foster a print awareness environment and evidence-aligned practices for teaching letter-sound correspondence / Determine the key components of early alphabet instruction / Consider opportunities to provide differentiated instruction guided by student development.		1 hr, 20 min
Module 5: Emergent Writing Learn the stages of writing development / Understand the role of emergent writing skills in literacy development / Define key skills that support emergent writing / Apply routines that support letter knowledge and letter formation.		1 hr, 10 min
Module 6: It Takes a Village Learn practical ways to partner with and empower families to support oral language development at home / Identify characteristics of oral language risk / Define Developmental Language Disorder and common characteristics and misunderstandings / Apply effective strategies to support children at risk for language difficulties / Post-assessment		2 hrs
My signature verifies that I have completed all sessions of the IMSE Pre-K Literacy Plus training, and would like to apply my attendance towards earning 13 State Continuing Education Clock Hours for Educators (SCECHs).

Signature
------------------	--

IMPORTANT: You must apply for SCECHs within Schoolcraft College's outlined semester dates, or within 10 days of training completion if you are attending a multi-week training which spans more than 4 weeks. Forms received after these deadlines will not be processed and SCECHs will not be awarded.