The Human Spotify

THURSDAY
SEPTEMBER 11

11 - 2 p.m.

LOWER LEVEL,
VISTATECH CENTER

John Rush is called the "Human Spotify" because he has 2 Huge Request Books that he passes out during his shows!

People pick songs they want John to play, write them on little post-it notes, and then stick them all over the stage. In between songs, John reads off 3 or 4 requests and then based on which one the audience picks, he plays the next song. It really lets the audience get involved in the show and also makes sure he plays the songs they really want to hear! It's a fun & interactive show!
